

After working in the Telecommunications business for several years, I now understand the importance of requiring LECs to provide access to their competitors. Please keep competition alive!